By the President,

John Quincy Adams

Secretary of State.

To perpetual peace and friendship between the United States and the Sock and Fox tribes, or nations of Indians, and to remove all future cause of dissensions which may arise from undefined territorial boundaries, the President of the United States of America, by William Clark, superintendent of Indian affairs and sole Commissioner, specially appointed for that purpose; of the one part, and the undersigned chiefs and headmen of the Sock and Fox tribes, or nations, fully deputised to act for and in behalf of their said nations, of the other part, have entered into the following articles and conditions, viz:

Article 1st The Sock and Fox tribes or nations of Indians, by their deputations in Council assembled, do hereby agree in consideration of certain sums of money &c. to be paid to them, said Sock and Fox tribes, by the government of the United States, as hereinafter stipulated, to cede and forever quit claim, and do, in behalf of their said tribes or nations, hereby cede, relinquish and forever quit claim, unto the United States, all right, title, interest and claim to the lands which the said Sock and Fox tribes, have, or claim within the limits of the state of Missouri, which are situated, lying and being between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, and a line running from the Missouri at the entrance of Kansas river North one hundred miles to the North West corner of the State of Missouri, and from thence East to the Mississippi. It being understood that the small tract of land lying between the rivers Des Moines and the Mississippi, and the section of the above line between the Mississippi and the Des Moines is intended for the use of the half breeds belonging to the Sock and Fox Nations; they holding it, however, by the same title and in the same manner that other Indian titles are held.

Article 2nd The chiefs and headmen who sign this convention, for themselves and in behalf of their tribes, do acknowledge the lands East and South of the lines described in the first article, so far as the Indians claimed the same, to belong to the United States, and that none of their tribes shall be permitted to settle or hunt upon any part of it, after the first day of January 1826 without special permission from the Superintendent of Indian affairs.

Article 3rd It is hereby stipulated and agreed, on the part of the United States, as a full consideration for the claims and lands ceded by the Sock and Fox tribes in the first article, there shall be paid to the Sock & Fox nations, within the present year, one thousand dollars in cash, or merchandize; and in addition to the annuities stipulated to be paid to the Sock and Fox tribes by a former treaty, the United States do agree to pay to the said Sock tribe, five hundred dollars, and to the Fox tribe five hundred dollars, annually, for the term of ten succeeding years. And at the request of the chiefs of the said Sock and Fox nations, the Commissioner agrees to pay to Maurice Blondeau a half Indian of the Fox tribe, the sum of five hundred dollars, it being a debt due by the said nation to the aforesaid Blondeau for property taken from him during the late war.

Article 4th The United States engage to provide and support a Blacksmith, for the Sock & Fox nations, so long as the President of the United States may think proper, and to furnish the said nations with such farming utensils, &c. cattle, and to employ such persons to aid them in their agriculture, as the President may deem expedient.

Article 5th The annuities stipulated to be paid by the 3rd article, are to be paid either in money, merchandize, provisions or domestic animals, at the option of the aforesaid tribes, and when the said annuities or part thereof is paid in merchandize, it is to be delivered to them at the first cost of the goods at Saint Louis, free from cost of transportation.

Article 6th This treaty shall take effect and be obligatory on the contracting parties so soon as the same shall be ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof.

In testimony whereof the said William Clark Commissioner as aforesaid, and the chiefs and headmen of the Sock and Fox tribes of Indians as aforesaid, have hereunto set their hands at Washington City, this fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty four.

Miscellaneous Letters - January-March 1825.

In Senate of the United States,

January 13.th 1825.

RESOLVED, two thirds of the Senators present concurring therein, That the Senate do advise and consent to the ratification of the treaty, made and concluded at the City of Washington, on the fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, between the United States and the Sock and Fox tribes of Indians.

Attest,

Charles Cutts Secy.

James Monroe,
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

To all and singular to whom these Presents shall come, GREETING:

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and the Sock and Fox tribes of Indians, was made and concluded, on the fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, at the City of Washington, by the Commissioner on the part of the United States, and certain Chiefs and Warriors of the said tribes, on the part, and in behalf, of the said tribes; which Treaty is in the words following, to wit:

To perpetuate peace and friendship between the United States and the Sock and Fox tribes or nations of Indians, and to remove all future cause of dissensions which may arise from undefined territorial boundaries, the President of the United States of America, by WILLIAM CLARK, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and sole commissioner specially appointed for that purpose, of the one part, and the undersigned Chiefs and Head Men of the Sock and Fox tribes or nations, fully deputed to act for and in behalf of their said nations, of the other part, have entered into the following articles and conditions, viz:

ARTICLE I.

The Sock and Fox tribes or nations of Indians, by their deputations in council assembled, do hereby agree, in consideration of certain sums of money, &c. to be paid to the said Sock and Fox tribes, by the Government of the United States, as hereinafter stipulated, to cede and forever quit claim, and do, in behalf of their said tribes or nations, hereby cede, relinquish, and forever quit claim, unto the United States, all right, title, interest, and claim, to the lands which the said Sock and Fox tribes have, or claim, within the limits of the state of Missouri, which are situated, lying, and being, between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, and a line running from the Missouri, at the entrance of Kansas river, north one hundred miles to the northwest corner of the state of Missouri, and from thence east to the Mississippi. It being understood, that the small tract of land lying between the rivers Desmoin and the Mississippi, and the section of the above line between the Mississippi and the Desmoin, is intended for the use of the half-breeds belonging to the Sock and Fox nations; they holding it, however, by the same title, and in the same manner, that other Indian titles are held.

ARTICLE II.

The Chiefs and Head Men who sign this convention, for themselves, and in behalf of their tribes, do acknowledge the lands east and south of the lines described in the first article, so far as the Indians claimed the same, to belong to the United States, and that none of their tribes shall be permitted to settle or hunt upon any part of it, after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, without special permission from the Superintendent of Indian Affairs.

ARTICLE III.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed, on the part of the United States, as a full consideration for the claims and lands ceded by the Sock and Fox tribes in the first article, there shall be paid to the Sock and Fox nations, within the present year, one thousand dollars in cash, or merchandise; and, in addition to the annuities stipulated to be paid to the Sock and Fox tribes by a former treaty, the United States do agree to pay to the said Sock tribe, five hundred dollars, and to the Fox tribe five hundred dollars, annually, for the term of ten succeeding years; and, at the request of the Chiefs of the said Sock and Fox nations, the Commissioner agrees to pay to Maurice Blondeau, a half Indian of the Fox tribe, the sum of five hundred dollars, it being a debt due by the said nation to the aforesaid Blondeau, for property taken from him during the late war.

ARTICLE IV.

The United States engage to provide and support a Blacksmith for the Sock and Fox nations, so long as the President of the United States may think proper, and to furnish the said nations with such farming utensils and cattle, and to employ such persons to aid them in their agriculture, as the President may deem expedient.

ARTICLE V.

The annuities stipulated to be paid by the third article, are to be paid either in money, merchandise, provisions, or domestic animals, at the option of the aforesaid tribes, and when the said annuities or part thereof is paid in merchandise, it is to be delivered to them at the first cost of the goods at St. Louis, free from cost of transportation.

ARTICLE VI.

This treaty shall take effect, and be obligatory on the contracting parties, so soon as the same shall be ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof.

In testimony whereof, the said WILLIAM CLARK, Commissioner as aforesaid, and the Chiefs and Head Men of the Sock and Fox tribes of Indians as aforesaid, have hereunto set their hands, at Washington City, this fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.
